

Kickapoo Reserve Dam Challenge

October 5, 2019

Race Description:

The Kickapoo Reserve Dam Challenge Triathlon challenges participants to compete among the rugged hills of scenic southwestern Wisconsin's rural countryside and the Kickapoo Valley Reserve. Paddle seven miles down the winding Kickapoo River along rock outcroppings and through diverse vegetation. The river route begins at Bridge 7 and ends at the Bridge 14 Transition Area. Road bike 15 miles through the hilly Driftless area. The route takes you through the valleys and over the ridges in one of Wisconsin's most scenic rural landscapes. Steep climbs and rapid descents provide the ride of a lifetime! Trail run three miles within the Kickapoo Valley Reserve. The route starts with a short stretch on Highway P, then turns to a winding and wooded trail and finally leads you down the paved Old Highway 131 Multi-Use Trail. Proceeds from this event benefit the Kickapoo Valley Reserve Education Program.

Registration:

The race will be limited to the first 500 registrants. Register early to guarantee your spot! Early registration tiers: July 31, August 31, and September 30. Postmark will determine entry date. Canoe and kayak rentals available while supplies last. No same day registration.
